QUESTION PRESENTED FOR REVIEW

CAN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA LAWFULLY DENY A DEMAND FOR THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF AN INDIVIDUALS STATUS OF DEJURE CITIZENSHIP
WHEN THERE HAS BEEN NO OPPOSITION TO HIS DEMAND?

Relief Not Available In Other Court

Lower Courts have failed to move. State Supreme Court has denied. No relief has been given, therefore it is now the petitioner against the State of California.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS TO THE CALIFORNIA COURT OF APPEAL
SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT,
DIVISION SEVEN

The petitioner, David C Roberts, respectfully prays that :

A Writ of Mandamus issue to the California Court of Appeal Second Appellate District, Division Seven, located in Los Angeles, California, to compel the Court of Appeal to issue the Default Judgment in Appellate Case Number B 024796.

JURISDICTION OF THIS COURT

JURISDICTION is hereby invoked pursuant to; MAGNA CARTA Chapter 61, 63; Northwest Ordinance, Sec. 4 & Article II; Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776; Preamble, Constitution of the United States of America, 1787; Constitution of the United States of America, Article III, Sec. 1, Article III, Sec. 2, Cl. 1, & 2, Article VI, Sec 2, Sec 3; FIRST CONGRESS, Stat. Happersett, 21 Wall (88 US) 162, 171, 166, 167.

Constitutional Provision Involved

Article of Amendment IX:

[Section 1.] The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Petitioner is a Natural born Citizen of Colorado, now an inhabitant of California and therefore a citizen of the Several States, under Article IV, Sec 2, Clause 1, US Constitution, having revoked and rescinded all contracts and recorded the "Revocations of Power of Attorney" at the Los Angeles County Recorders Office, and executed them properly under the laws of California and the United States of America to the proper administrative officials. See exhibits "A through D" attached and made a part hereof and herein.

On November 10, 1986 Petitioner filed in the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, State of California, a "Petition For Declaratory Judgment of Citizenship" Case Number C624188 which was denied on Monday November 24 1986 by Judge Warren H. Deering, Petitioner then appealed timely to the California Court of Appeal Second Appellate District, as "no person can claim to be something they are not". see Ozawa v. United States, 260 US 178.

Then on August 19, 1987, I received from the Presiding Judge of Division Seven, a Notice to the Respondents to file within 30 days, after the date on the notice or good cause shown for relief from default, the default would be submitted for decision upon the record and the appellant's opening brief. Per Rule 17b California Rules of Court. See exhibit "E" attached and made a part herein and hereof.

On August 31, 1987, I received from County Counsel a copy of a letter sent to the Presiding Judge Mildred L. Lillie, of Division Seven, court of Appeal, containing a statement that Judge Warren H. Deering would not appear and did not feel he was a party to the action. See exhibit "F" attached and made a part herein and hereof.

Ninety (90) days have passed and the "Default Judgment" has not been received from the California Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division Seven.

Petition for writ of mandamus to the California Court of Appeals was filed in the Supreme Court of the State of California on May 6, 1988 and was denied on June 22, 1988.

Reason for Granting Writ

Petitioner is entitled to a declaration of his status as a matter of law, Constitution of the United States of America, and Right, Article IX of Amendment, Constitution of the United States of America.

Conclusion

Wherefore, Petitioner prays for the Writ of Mandamus to issue, under the Rules set forth in Marbury v. Madison, 5 US 368, plus the filing costs of this petition and the cost of the filing in the Court of Appeal, State Supreme Court along with the Declaratory Judgment to be issued in favor of the Petitioner forthwith.

Re: David C. Roberts v. John and Jane
Does 1 thru 99

Dear Justice Lillie:

Our office was recently served with the enclosed notice pursuant to Rule 17(b) of California Rules of Court.

We are not attorney of record for any party. The Superior Court was not a party to the original proceeding which named Does 1 through 99 as defendants. The instant proceeding is an appeal, not a writ proceeding. Accordingly, the Superior Court does not appear to be a proper party to the appeal.

In any event, we have discussed this matter with the trial judge, the Honorable Warren Deering, and he does not request
